Changing of the gourd ceremony Gyeongbokgung palace: A tradition comparable to the Changing of the Guards at Buckingham Palace, this ceremony takes place twice a day in front of Gwanghwamun, the main gate of Gyeongbokgung at 10 a.m. and 2 p.m. (except on Tuesdays).

National Folk Museum: National Folk Museum of Korea is a national museum of South Korea, located within the grounds of the Gyeongbokgung Palace in Jongno-gu, Seoul, and uses replicas of historical objects to illustrate the history of traditional life of the Korean people.

Jogesa Buddhist Temple: Jogyesa is the chief temple of the Jogye Order of Korean Buddhism, becoming so in 1936. It thus plays a leading role in the current state of Seon Buddhism in South Korea.

Ginseng Center: The medicinal use of Korean Ginseng was already well known to Chinese civil herb doctor several thousands years ago. The name of ginseng can be found in various Chinese historical records, many of which were written as early as B.C. 100. According to many Chinese medicinal books ever published, Ginseng has been generally used as a medicine for human health in most of the oriental countries. Korean Ginseng originally grew in deep mountains both of Korea and China.

It's time you start taking care of your own health. Take Korean Ginseng today and you will feel healthier than ever before.
